

TWO EXHORTATIONS — ROMANS 14:19

The STRONG Has a Negative Exhortation

- The STRONG believer needs to grow in love
- EFFORT: It is wrong for a mature believer to be insensitive, and to not help a weaker brother grow.
- WARNING: The mature believer is to be sensitive toward the weak believer so as to not offend
- EXPECTATION: If the mature believer loves the weak believer he will help him to grow
- EXHORTATION: The strong must love the weak

The WEAK Has a Positive Exhortation

- The WEAK believer needs to grow in knowledge
- EFFORT: It is wrong for an immature believer to remain immature (having a weak conscience, 2Pe.3:18)
- WARNING: The immature believer is to be sensitive toward the strong believer so as to grow spiritually
- EXPECTATION: If the weak is wise he will make an effort to learn from the mature believer
- EXHORTATION: The weak must learn from the strong

The Result will be Peace and Maturity to the Glory of God
