

HEBREW OLD TESTAMENT CHRONOLOGY

Most of the books were written contemporary to the authors life. That is, they wrote about events in their lifetime. Some were written much after the events they describe (e.g., Genesis, Job, Ruth). This chart attempts to show what time frame the authors covered. The books that were written after the fact show the date the book was written.