RELATIONSHIP OF FATHER, SON, AND HOLY SPIRIT TO MAN

- The Father is invisible
- He makes Himself visible only in the
- He acts through and in the Son.
- He embodies Himself (makes Himself visible) in the Son.
- It is in the Son that the Father becomes a part of human
- The Father is the source of both the Son and the Holy Spirit.
- · Logically, we think of the Father first.

- The Son perpetually reveals the Father.
- · It is in the Son that the Father becomes a part of human life.
- The Son exists as long as the Father exists.
- The Son is co-existent with the Father.
- · Chronologically, we experience the Son first.

HOLY SPIRIT

- The Holy Spirit proceeds silently and invisibly from
- · He does not embody the
- He issues from the Father. through the Son.
- · He continues to influence man with regard to the Son.
- · He helps man to live in the Son.

- · Logically, we think of the Father first.
- The Father is the source of both the Son and the Holy Spirit.
- The Holy Spirit proceeds silently and invisibly from the Son.
- The Son perpetually reveals the Father.
- It is in the Son that the Father becomes a part of human life.
- · Chronologically, we experience the Son first.

Tom Elseroad 12-12-2004 relationship-f-s-hs-to-man.cdr

